SPRING LAKE.

Spring Lake, N. J., June 13.-Cottagers arrive early at this attractive resort and remain until late in the autumn. The programme of outdoor sports, entertainments and amusements of different kinds is being planned, and an enjoyable season is anticipated for this resort, which has been designated the Newport of the New Jersey coast. The efforts of the women's committee, which was formed two summers ago, are just bearing results, and the resort is especially beautiful this season. Their work consisted of planting flowers and trees and in urging others to do likewise.

The courtesy title of "honorable" is also hers, whether single or married, until the end of her existence. This title is only bestowed upon a maid of honor a few days before she takes up her new appointment. She receives a formal letter from the Lord Chamberlain intimating that the sovereign deems it advisable that this style and title should be afforded her and that the will henceforth be known under this designation.

Every one may not know that a maid of honor is expected to have a home of her own in London when the court is at Buckingham Palace. A royal carriage is, however, sent every morning to convey her to the scene of her duties.

The usual rule is for a maid of honor to be in close attendance upon the Queen from 10 or 11 o'clock in the morning until 4 or 5 o'clock in the afternoon and again in the evening every day for two months in the year, the position carrying with it an allowance of $400 a year.
